

CRYING FREEDOM

Heroic tales from the unstoppable nation of West Papua

AHINSA
ANGEL

Crying Freedom is a free, interactive, 70-page illustrated story based on real events in West Papua. It is a tribute to the people of this island nation and their unshakeable determination over more than 50 years, against all odds, to regain their freedom through passive resistance.

Join young Vivi as she seeks to understand her role in ending a global conspiracy that continues to enable militarized commerce and genocide in West Papua, a place perhaps as biologically and culturally diverse as the Amazon.

Crying Freedom is available in a variety of forms. Choose the best eBook format below for viewing on your device.

» Web browser version \(will not track your identity or location\)

» Apple iBooks store \(best for iPad, iPhone or Mac with iBooks\)

» Kindle and other eReaders \(via the Crying Freedom website\)

Help us publish Crying Freedom in other languages by contributing any amount (by PayPal or credit card) to our volunteer coalition, Freedom 50 Creative (not tax-deductible)

We also need volunteers to translate, or help with research and web development - www.cryingfreedom.org